Please ensure that our services meet your needs before making a purchase.

5. Prohibited Activities

Users are strictly prohibited from using our Services for illegal or abusive purposes, including but not limited to:

Launching or participating in DDoS attacks

Hosting or distributing NSFW/adult content

6. Data and Backups

You are fully responsible for the data stored on your server. If your hosting plan or control panel includes a backup feature, it is your responsibility to enable, manage, and maintain backups of your server data.

We are not responsible for data loss caused by user actions, software errors, or system failures. While we may, at our discretion, offer temporary or automated backup systems, we make no guarantees about data recovery or availability of backups.
